Excise Police Arrest 82 People on 103 Charges During Little 500 Week

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Indiana State Excise Police officers issued 103 summonses and incarcerated several subjects in Bloomington during the weekend of Indiana University's Little 500, from April 20-21, 2007.

Most summonses were issued for illegal consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages. The following is a list of some of the charges filed by ISEP officers:

- *Seventy-five (75) minors were charged with illegal possession, consumption, or transportation of alcoholic beverages.
- *Thirteen (13) minors were charged with possession of false identification.
- *Three (3) people were arrested for public intoxication.
- *Two (2) minors were arrested for resisting law enforcement.
- *Two (2) minors were arrested for false informing.
- *Eight (8) additional charges were filed for a variety of offenses.

One minor was arrested for possession of cocaine – more than 3 grams (C felony), resisting law enforcement, public intoxication and illegal consumption.

Throughout the week, excise officers worked with officers from the Bloomington Police Department, Indiana University Police Department, Monroe County Sheriff's Department, and Indiana State Police.

Indiana State Excise Police officers are the enforcement division of the Indiana Alcohol & Tobacco Commission.
